

To: FCC
Re: Broadcast rights.

I find it disturbing that someone would want to limit satellite radio's right to broadcast weather and traffic updates. I am a individual who travels extensively and find Satellite radio's services immensely useful. They have a product which local radio stations do not offer. The ability to get an instantaneous update of conditions. I would personally consider it a great injustice to limit their ability to offer these services.

Sincerely,

Christopher PHillip